2010 SCHOLARSHIP WINNER HITS A TRIPLE

This year's Towpath Credit Union scholarship winner demonstrates that the future is in good hands with the upcoming generation. Evan Rebillot, shown left with his mother Jackie, submitted an essay that clearly stated the financial responsibilities of beginning higher education and how to prepare for them. The scholarship committee at Towpath felt that his essay stood out, landing him the $1,000.00 scholarship.

Evan also sent the same essay to the Summit Chapter of The Ohio Credit Union League. Each year the Summit Chapter gives out three scholarships, two $1,000.00 and one $1,500.00. His endeavor again paid off as he took the top prize.

The top essays from each chapter of the OCUL are then forwarded to the state competition which awards four scholarships of $2,500.00 each. Once again, Evan's essay rose to the top and he was given one of the four scholarships.

Evan plans on attending Duquesne University in the fall where he will be studying to become a physician's assistant. Everyone at Towpath wishes Evan the best of luck with his future.

TOWPATH CREDIT UNION HOSTS ITS LATEST "MILLIONAIRE FOR A DAY."

Each spring Towpath Credit Union makes someone a millionaire for one day. During the Credit Union National Association's Youth Week, which ran this year from April 18 - 24, Towpath encouraged its youth members 13 and under to make deposits to their savings accounts. Each deposit earns one entry into the contest, the winner of which is determined by a random drawing. The lucky child then has $1,000,000.00 deposited into their savings account for 24 hours and keeps the interest accrued during that time period.

This year's millionaire was Beckett Fant, shown left, son of J. Clayton and Kirsten Fant of Bath. Beckett was greeted the morning of May 13 by a chauffeur driven white stretch limousine and special attendant Kylan Toles. Mr. Toles, a loan officer with Towpath, accompanied Beckett to his school and returned later to take Beckett and a few family members to Towpath's main office in Fairlawn. There, while sipping Coca-Cola out of crystal goblets, the family was given a VIP tour of the operation by the credit union's C.E.O, Alan McArthur. After the tour the group climbed back into the limo and was taken to Swenson's drive-in where they dined on an assortment of the restaurant's famous hamburgers.

WARM THE SOLES OF KIDS RUNS JUNE 1 THROUGH AUGUST 31

You can make a difference in the life of an area boy or girl. Join our Warm the Soles of Kids annual shoe drive. Towpath Credit Union along with other area credit unions will be participating in the 10th year of providing a pair of new shoes to needy kids in the area.

In the past 10 years we have provided new shoes and have collected over $120,000.00 for the purchase of new shoes. They are distributed to area schools (through guidance counselors), Salvation Army, Red Cross, inner city organizations and local clothing banks. With your support, we will be accepting new shoes or money to purchase new shoes for kids ages 5 through 17 from now until August 31. To participate you can bring a new pair of shoes to either branch or give a monetary contribution.

Together we can provide warm feet and happy hearts to area children in need.
